

Divisions as Diverse as You Are

“CEC/TAG [The Association for the Gifted] has a commitment to weave diversity into all its initiatives. Working with the TAG Board has enriched my life personally and professionally.”

- Gloria D. Taradash, Initiatives for Education, Albuquerque, NM

Each CEC division explores a particular area of special education in thoughtful detail, helping professionals exchange ideas, stimulate research, and promote expertise.

Division membership is available exclusively to CEC members – and you may join as many divisions as you like.

CEC Pioneers Division | Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders | Council for Educational Diagnostic Services
Council of Administrators of Special Education | Division for Communicative Disabilities and Deafness
Division for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Exceptional Learners | Division for Early Childhood
Division for Learning Disabilities | Division for Physical, Health and Multiple Disabilities | Division for Research
Division of International Special Education and Services | Division on Career Development and Transition
Division on Autism and Developmental Disabilities | Division on Visual Impairments
The Association for the Gifted | Technology and Media Division | Teacher Education Division

To learn more about CEC's 17 special interest divisions and other membership benefits, visit www.cec.sped.org.

Council for Exceptional
Children