

The Council for Exceptional Children's in-dues professional liability plan is the solution to uncertain or inadequate liability coverage. As a Premier Member, you'll have peace of mind knowing that if your school district doesn't have sufficient coverage or refuses to defend you, your back-up plan is in place. Your association's affiliation with the Trust for Insuring Educators (TIE) makes this valuable member benefit possible.

Features

Your in-dues plan:

- Pays up to $250,000 for damages arising from professional liability and employment liability lawsuits.
- Pays defense costs in addition to the liability limit for professional liability lawsuits.
- Provides Job Protection Benefits if you are threatened with a job action such as termination, demotion, involuntary transfer or suspension.
- Covers claims brought at any time, as long as the act or omission that resulted in the claim occurred while your policy was in effect.
- Provides coverage as long as you remain an CEC member in good standing and CEC continues to offer this professional liability plan as an in-dues member benefit.

What's Covered

The in-dues plan protects you against a broad range of exposures associated with your educational duties, such as:

- Injuries to students under your supervision
- Improper placement of students
- Hiring unqualified people
- Defamation
- Failure to educate
- Failure to promote students or grant credit
- Improper methods employed in instruction, counseling, research design, etc.

- Violation of student civil rights
- Negative consequences in implementing the recommendations of research studies.

Additional Protection

After a $100 deductible, the plan also pays 90 percent of your attorney's fees if you:

- Are accused of sexual misconduct, provided you are found not guilty or the charges are dismissed (limit of $35,000 per claim / $100,000 aggregate per policy period).
- Face criminal charges arising out of corporal punishment, provided you are found not guilty or the charges are dismissed (limit of $10,000 per claim, per policy period).
- Are named in a lawsuit seeking non-monetary relief (limit of $35,000 per claim, per policy period).

Job Protection Benefits

If you are threatened with a job action, such as termination, demotion, involuntary transfer or suspension, the plan's Job Protection Benefits* will pay:

- Up to $250 for consultation with an attorney of your choice
- Up to $750 for attorney's services resulting from a request for a formal hearing
- Up to $4,000 for legal fees, subject to a $100 deductible, if you decide to sue because of the job action and the judgment in the suit is in your favor. Up to $750 is available to you regardless of the suit's outcome.

Eligibility

As a Premier Member of CEC, you are automatically insured for $250,000 of professional liability coverage. You must be a W-2 employee of a school, college or university; private or public, local regional, state or federal school system, agency or organization. This must be your main occupation.

The plan becomes effective the date your membership is accepted by CEC and continues as long as you remain an CEC member in good standing. This is a benefit of your membership.

If you are a registered nurse, a licensed/certified school psychologist or a physical therapist, you must be performing medically-related teaching or services in the normal course of your duties as an employee of a school to be eligible for coverage.

Exclusions

School board members and owners of private schools are not eligible.

If you are an educator primarily in private practice or an independent contractor, you are not eligible for this program. Please contact the plan administrator at (800) 821-7303 for information about professional liability plans for which you may be eligible.

Other Insurance

The insurance provided by CEC's in-dues professional liability plan is excess of any other valid and collectible insurance or indemnity you might have with regard to the claim, including coverage provided by your school district and/or school board.
