Because there was not a quorum, Executive Director Alexander T. Graham gave his report (agenda item 7.0).

7.0 Executive Director’s Report
In his report, Executive Director Alex Graham provided updates on staffing and the move. He provided detailed information on membership initiatives. Specifically: a lapsed members campaign; an incentive plan for teacher educators to recruit student members; an administrator focused promotion for organization/district membership with leadership publications package incentive; CEC’s first digital campaign using ads in Facebook, LinkedIn, and Google; and enhanced member features with $250,000 in complimentary liability insurance for all Premier Members and CEC is returning the print edition of TEACHING Exceptional Children as a feature for Full Membership.

Graham also indicated that piloting of regional workshops is underway for the fall with workshops in California, Indiana, Georgia, and the Washington, DC region. Staff will be reporting on the progress and viability of CEC engaging in regional programming at the November 2016 board meeting.

Jane Quenneville joined the call at the end of the Executive Director’s report so a quorum existed.
